CAPITAL ROCKED BY HEAVY NIGHT ATTACK FROM MOONLIT SKIES

Tons of Bombs Rained on London After Two Thrusts Had Been Turned Back With Little Damage Done—Four-Engine Nazi Bomber Brought to Earth

LONDON, Oct. 15 (P).—Tons of bombs, rained from moonlit skies on London, rocked the capital last night and early today as German raiders delivered the heaviest night attack since the air siege of Britain's capital began five weeks ago. The drone of heavy bombers, the eerie whistle of falling missiles, the clump of explosions and the boom of the anti-aircraft barrage were almost constant in the early hours of the raid. But the tempo slackened as dawn neared.

The raiders dropped high explosives, "Molotov breadbaskets," oil bombs, starting many fires, most of which were speedily controlled.

CASUALTIES IN CONVENT
One fire badly damaged the top floor of a restaurant. Another damaged a cinema. One high explosive damaged a Roman Catholic convent and church with some casualties.

In three attacks on a Midlands town at least four persons were killed and thirteen injured. High explosives hit an old woman's home and a department store.

Four houses were demolished and four persons were believed buried in a Southeast Coast town, where high explosives, oil bombs and incendiaries were unloaded.

GOVERNMENT TO PERMIT DEBATE

Premier King Says House May Have Discussion of International Affairs

OTTAWA, Oct. 14 (P).—The Government is prepared to allow a full debate on international affairs when Parliament resumes on November 5. Prime Minister Mackenzie King told a press conference here today, before he left by train for Quebec on a trip that will take him to the Maritimes.

"The members should come to Ottawa on November 5 prepared to stay," the Prime Minister said.

Mr. King added that if it was decided to hold a general debate, the present session of Parliament, now standing adjourned, would be prorogued as soon as it reassembled and a new session would start a day or two later.

"The Government has no desire to avoid debate," said Mr. King, adding that if the members wanted the debate to start as soon as the resumption date in November, the Government "would not oppose them."

If there was to be an extended sitting next month, Mr. King said, the House and the Senate staffs must be brought up to seasonal strength and Members of Parliament would have to arrange for Ottawa living accommodations. It was to avoid this that a mere formal sitting next month had been proposed.

DEBATE PROBABLE
However, he added it now appeared definite there would be a preliminary debate when Parliament opens. This will deal with the question of whether or not a full debate on the international situation and the war effort should be held.

If there was to be a full debate the Prime Minister held it would be preferable to have it all at one time instead of starting it in November and finishing it in January.

The Government, Mr. King said, had no desire to avoid debate and was prepared to give the members fullest opportunity of discussing any matter they wish.

As soon as he returns from the Maritimes the whole question will be further considered, but in the meantime the members should be prepared to be here for some time.

Reporter Becomes Senator of U.S.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 14 (P).—Joseph H. Ball, thirty-four-year-old political reporter for The St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press, morning and evening newspapers, was appointed today by Governor Hiram Stearns to the United States Senate in succession to the late Senator Ernest Lundeen.

GIVES TALK TO CHILDREN

Princess Elizabeth Broadcasts Message to Young People of the Empire

LONDON, Oct. 14 (P).—Fourteen-year-old Princess Elizabeth said in her first broadcast yesterday that Britain's children at home are "full of cheerfulness and courage."

"We know, everyone of us, that in the end all will be well," said the King's elder daughter on the British Broadcasting Corporation's children's hour.

"And when peace comes," the Princess added, "remember it will be for us children of today to make the world of tomorrow a better and happier place."

The address, lasting four minutes, was heard throughout the world.

"I feel that I am speaking to friends and companions who have shared with my sister and myself many a happy children's hour," the Princess said. "Thousands of you in this country have had to leave your homes and be separated from your fathers and mothers."

"My sister, Margaret Rose, and I feel so much for you, as we know from experience what it means to be away from those we love most of all."

"To you living in new surroundings."

RUMANIAN SHIPS SUNK BY SOVIET

Russian Monitors Reported to Have Destroyed Two Patrol Boats in Heavy Action

BUCHAREST, Oct. 14 (P).—The reported sinking of two Rumanian patrol boats by Soviet monitors aggravated tensions today in Nazi-dominated Rumania, already made anxious by reports that Soviet Russia is engaged in large-scale military preparations along the border.

In Budapest, the fact the Rumanian censors approved the report of the vessels being sunk was interpreted as an indication of the heightening tension.

Terror of War Hovers Over Balkan Nations As Armies Move In

Russia Reported Constructing Air Bases in Bessarabia—Germans Increasing Military Strength at Mouth of Danube—Troops Concentrated

BUCHAREST, Oct. 14 (P).—Soviet Russia was reported in well-informed quarters tonight to be hastily constructing Bessarabia, rushing squadrons of warplanes to the half-completed fields and sending shipload after shipload of military supplies into the area as fears rose for the Balkans' delicate peace.

The Germans, too, were increasing their military establishment in the area near the mouth of the Danube.

The Russians were reported rushing construction on five entirely new fields in scattered parts of Bessarabia, and converting two commercial airports, built years ago, into military air bases.

Hundreds of planes were already on hand, but additional squadrons

Development of Great Waterway Now Taking Form

Prime Minister King Announces Governments of Canada and United States to Begin "Engineering and Other Investigations" on St. Lawrence River—Diversion of Water Is Sanctioned

OTTAWA, Oct. 14 (P).—Immediate steps looking to a joint international power development on the International Rapids section of the St. Lawrence River and the diversion of additional water from the Niagara River for power purposes were announced by Prime Minister Mackenzie King today.

Both moves, Mr. King said in a statement, are designed to assure adequate supplies of power for defence production.

In the case of the St. Lawrence it was said the Governments of Canada and the United States, in anticipation of a final decision on St. Lawrence power developments, have taken steps to initiate engineering and other investigations.

In regard to Niagara Mr. King's 250-word statement said the United States would raise no objection to the Government of Ontario using more water for power at Niagara Falls if the Ontario Government agreed to provide at once for diversions into the Great Lakes system of waters which normally flow into Hudson Bay.

Action on the St. Lawrence River is being taken at once, said the Prime Minister.

Verdict of Not Guilty Is Directed

WINNIPEG, Oct. 14 (P).—A directed verdict of not guilty was brought in today by the jury in the trial of John Ashton Barnett and John Andrusiak, charged with the murder of Constable John McDonald, of the Winnipeg City Police Force.

Mr. Justice Robson, in directing the jury to return its not guilty verdict today, intimated there did not appear to be sufficient evidence of a common purpose to use firearms.

Only one development was reported in the broader field of international relations. A Tokyo dispatch said Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka was quoted by some of the Japanese press as having declared at a national rally Sunday that "if the military situation becomes disadvantageous for Germany and Italy, we must be prepared to assist them."

SIR MATTHEW BEST DIES IN LONDON

LONDON, Oct. 14 (P).—Admiral Sir Matthew Best, sixty-two, a veteran of the Battle of Jutland, and former commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, 1927-29, died today.

He served as commodore and chief of staff to the commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, 1927-29, and as commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, 1929-31; vice admiral in charge of Malta and admiral superintendent of Malta dockyard, 1931-34; and commander-in-chief of the America and West Indies station, 1934-37. He retired last year.

Refugees arriving from Bessarabia said shiploads of military supplies were arriving daily from Russia at the Bessarabian ports of Vavcov, Burnas and Bugas.

Meanwhile, German general staff officers were whistled from one conference to another in speedy motorcars, making military plans.

From Europe Day by Day—

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1940, by Southern Co.)

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Russia "is making hasty preparations for eventualities likely to arise from the presence of German troops in Rumania."

Moscow has forbidden navigation by foreign vessels in the Black Sea and this has already led to the sinking of one Yugoslav vessel and of Rumanian warcraft carrying home members of the Rumanian-Russian technical commission which had been meeting at Odessa.

These incidents says The Times Business correspondent, indicate how extreme is the tension now prevailing.

It is not lessened by the fact that Italian engineers are expected at Constantza to prepare a seaplane base on the Black Sea.

German plans for a naval base at Manlia are also reported.

It is certain, according to excellent Rumanian sources, that the operations of the Axis powers in Rumania are intended simply for widespread operations on the Balkan or Near Eastern front.

Hitler's Despatch from Rumania's Despatch is now organizing secret police throughout Rumania on the German model. Probably ten divisions of German troops altogether will be sent to Rumania.

It is believed in Bucharest that Mussolini has insisted on a free hand in Greece, and that Hitler then acted on his own to keep Turkey in check. The Germans are saying openly that Hungary and Bulgaria will soon be occupied as well.

The Turks, however, find the reason given by the Germans that they are merely reorganizing the Rumanian army, scarcely credible. In Istanbul it is said that Germany is not yet ready for a campaign against Turkey, and that the Turks will not accept any interference in their affairs.

At Ankara the view is taken that Germany will not start the campaign without making sure of the neutrality of the Soviet Union.

Indeed it is suggested that unless Germany and Russia have reached a secret agreement, which seems unlikely, it is necessary for Germany to render the Soviet Union harmless before attacking Turkey.

Whether the German general staff attempt this while fighting Britain seems very doubtful.

The explanation given by Foreign Minister Matsushita of Japan's pact with Germany and Italy, says The Times, has at least the merit of originality. It is that the treaty, so far from an intention of intimidating the United States is really designed to benefit her.

Apparently the Japanese Government thought that the entry of the wealthiest and potentially the strongest of the powers into the fray would certainly be a calamity for the nations arrayed against the American Republic.

The British Government will shortly reopen the Burma Road so that China may get war supplies, and the Japanese Foreign Minister apparently sees that all has not gone according to his plans.

There are 70,000 enemy soldiers at large in Egypt. The British army has no power to control them, but the Egyptian Government has interned the most obvious Nazis.

The big Italian colony, however, gives great scope for espionage and, until recently, it was not an offence under the Egyptian law to carry on spying, even in British barracks. A special British counter-espionage service has now been formed.

There has been editorial protest against the censorship's vague way of describing the air raids and says it causes acute anxiety among the relatives and friends of Londoners.

ARE CAUGHT BY BRITISH PATROL

Heavy Casualties Inflicted On Italian Unit When Crossing River

CAIRO, Oct. 14 (P).—A fight in which a British mechanized patrol caught an Italian unit of 120 men crossing a river in the Eastern Anglo-Egyptian Sudan and inflicted heavy casualties was reported today by the British command here.

The Italians were crossing the Cash River, twenty miles southeast of Kassala when the encounter took place. The communiqué gave no further details.

A Royal Air Force bulletin said raids were carried out during the night of October 12-13 by bombing aircraft on Tobruk, frequent target of the Royal Air Force. Bombs fell in the target area but it was impossible to ascertain the extent of the damage.

Enemy bombers attempted a raid on Tripoli yesterday, the communiqué said, but there was no damage and no casualties.

BRITISH BOMBERS BATTER NAZI BASES; REICH CAPITAL RAIDED

Norwegians In State of Revolution

TACOMA, Oct. 14 (P).—Norway is "living in a state of revolution" and it takes 400,000 German troops "to keep the country in line," Dr. Carl Hambro, President of the Norwegian Parliament, declared today.

Addressing a forum, Dr. Hambro said Germany is having a particularly hard time subjecting the Norwegians "because of constitutional provisions which have made it impossible for Germany to grab the country's legal machinery."

BRITISH RAID IN OUR SEA

Italy Admits Attacks Made On Air and Naval Bases

ROME, Oct. 14 (P).—British sea and air raids on Italian bases in Eastern Mediterranean zones were reported today by the High Command. British bombers attacked Portofino on the fortified island of Lerici, in the Dodecanese, where Italian air and naval bases are situated.

There was no immediate British comment on this report. Similarly the Admiralty in London has not yet commented upon an Italian statement that a naval engagement was fought off Malta during the weekend in which the unconfirmed Italian version was that the Italian fleet lost one destroyer and two torpedo boats, and a British cruiser was sunk and a British aircraft carrier damaged.

CHURCH IS HIT?
The communiqué claimed a direct hit on a church and other civilian buildings killed thirty-four persons and injured twenty "without considerable damage to military objectives."

The Dodecanese Islands, lying like stepping stones off the Turkish coast in the Aegean Sea, might have high strategic importance in Axis plans to reach Asia Minor. They have been the target of repeated raids by the Mediterranean Fleet and Royal Air Force. Lerici, particularly, is regarded as valuable to any such plan.

Three British warships, the communiqué reported, also pounded Italian positions near Sidra Barrani, on Egypt's Mediterranean coast, along the line of the Italian attempted push eastward from Libya toward the Suez. It claimed no casualties or damage resulted.

AFRICAN AIRMEN SCORE SUCCESSES

NAIROBI, Kenya Colony, Oct. 14 (P).—A British communiqué Monday night said:

"Two successful attacks were made on Yavello Airfield in Abyssinia (Ethiopia) by the South African Air Force during the night of October 12-13."

"Heavy and incendiary bombs fell among hangars and aircraft buildings. A machine-gun post was quickly silenced."

"This was the seventh time the South African Air Force raided Yavello."

"Other South African aircraft carried out numerous reconnaissance missions over enemy territory October 12 and 13. All returned safely."

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

REPORT MINISTER HAS LEFT BUCHAREST
NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (P).—The German wireless broadcast today a claim, picked up here by the Columbia Broadcasting System, that the British "ambassador" (minister) to Rumania and the British naval attaché have left Bucharest.

RUSSIA DEFIES FIVE-POWER NEGOTIATIONS
MOSCOW, Oct. 15 (P).—Tass, Soviet official news agency, described as "fantastic invention" today reports abroad that Russia, Britain, Turkey, Yugoslavia and Greece are negotiating on the question of Germany's move into Rumania. The news agency, which asserted the reports were published in two London newspapers and circulated by Reuters' British news agency, said they "do not correspond with reality."

RESCUED ALIVE FROM BLASTED BOMB SHELTER
LONDON, Oct. 15 (P).—More than 100 workers who toiled twenty hours have rescued forty to fifty persons alive from the debris-buried basement bomb shelter of a block of wrecked London flats. Uninjured others died when a big bomb smashed the flats during an air raid Sunday night and Monday morning. Four cranes and twenty trucks were used to clear a path through the debris to those who were trapped.

RUMANIAN OIL WELLS SET ON FIRE
BUCHAREST, Rumania, Oct. 14 (P).—Two Rumanian-owned oil wells and a third, belonging to a German-controlled company, were destroyed in the Ploesti district today by a three-hour fire which officials attributed to a "spark from machinery." German aircraft, which arrived with army units during the past week, prevented the blaze from spreading to other wells.

Snow and Sub-Zero Weather Fail to Halt Assaults On Invasion Ports, Naval Works, Oil Stores And Airdromes—Berliners Scurry to Shelters as Bombs Fall

German Coal Tar Plant at Duisberg Believed Damaged

LONDON, Oct. 14 (P).—In ever-widening raids carried out by bombers flying blind through snow and sub-zero weather, the Royal Air Force reported smashing blows early today at vital German naval bases and war stores deep in the Reich.

Naval bases at Kiel, Wilhelmshaven, Hamburg and the vast Krupp armaments works at Essen, oil stores and airdromes deep in Germany, as well as Nazi-held invasion ports, were blasted time after time, the Air Ministry said, in weather which made instrument flying necessary all the way.

Many raiding crews reached their targets to find clouds hanging almost to the ground but openings gave them a chance to dive through and unload their bombs squarely on their objectives.

HIT SHIPPING BASES
At Kiel, returning pilots told of bombs exploding like firecrackers among naval docks. At Wilhelmshaven, momentary gaps in the clouds enabled them to drop bombs on two main shipping bases.

It was the same story at Hamburg, where the large Voss ship-building yards were attacked. The pilots reported that rumsen glows reflected in the skies told of hits on their objectives.

"Weather conditions in the Ruhr were little better," the Air Ministry said, "but another bomber force detailed to attack a large coal tar plant at Duisberg, where nearly one-half of Germany's coal tar is distilled, finally succeeded in reaching their target after a glimpse of the factory's tall chimneys through a gap in the clouds. A large fire was seen to break out."

SOME NEW TARGETS
"Other raiding forces prevented by the weather from finding their primary objectives, sought out alternative targets. Bombs were dropped

HOLIDAY SPENT QUIETLY HERE

Sunny Weather Drew Many People Out of Doors for Thanksgiving Day

But for the sporting fixtures in various parts of the district and the fact that places of amusement remained open, Thanksgiving Day in Victoria differed little from any Sunday, and there was little traffic on the streets during the afternoon.

It was a holiday for the troops in this area, but camp and barracks kitchens did not serve the traditional turkey dinner, though many men of the forces, with a day's leave, were able to partake of the Thanksgiving feast in private homes.

With mild, sunny weather, favoring the Autumn holiday, many families spent the greater part of the day out of doors, motoring to popular resorts on the Island. With excellent fishing still to be had in sea and river, anglers made the most of the holiday, and Cowichan Bay and other favored fishing resorts on the Island were well patronized.

An excursion steamer, run by the British Columbia Coast Service, brought hundreds of people from Vancouver to spend the holiday in the capital city, and an equally large crowd of Victoria people made the excursion to the mainland.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES
It was a day of religious significance, and in the morning a large congregation attended a united service, representative of many denominations, held in First Baptist Church under the auspices of the Victoria Ministerial Association. A special Thanksgiving service was held in the morning in First Church of Christ, Scientist, and a Salvation Army programme of thanksgiving was conducted in the Victoria Citadel in the evening.

Several thousand persons watched the afternoon's sporting events, which included automobile races on the Langford Speedway, a Canadian football match at Macdonald Park between Varsity and Victoria Revelers, and an intercity football match at Royal Athletic Park between St. Saviours (Vancouver) and Victoria United.

FIRE AT EDMONTON
EDMONTON, Oct. 14 (P).—Fifteen persons were forced from their suites here Saturday, when fire gutted a large house in downtown Edmonton. The house was badly damaged on the eastern and northern sides.

He said the airmen, in the water for twenty-five hours, were picked up from a raft just as they had about given up hope. Their plane had crashed into the ocean.

RESCUERS WORK TO SAVE MINERS

Four Trapped When Shaft Collapsed—Being Fed Through Six-Inch Hole

DUNCAN, Ariz., Oct. 14 (P).—Four miners were trapped on the 500-foot level of the Hardy Mine, twelve miles west of here, tonight when a shaft collapsed and filled with about 300 feet of rock and earth.

The four are R. C. Williams, B. W. Neilson, T. J. Price and Jason Whippleburgh, all of Duncan. Through a drilled hole leading to the surface, the men sent word that they were unhurt but were suffering from cold. Food and water were lowered to them through a six-inch opening, left when a well was abandoned to make way for the present shaft.

Rescuers, in relays of eight, worked feverishly in hauling out the earth and rock and rebuilding the shaft.

Tough and Dangerous Sea Assignments for Transferred Vessels

Scraps Will Be Hot and Plenty of Steel Fly From Over-Age Destroyers When Enemy Is Encountered

LONDON, Oct. 14. (CP)—The United States Navy has transferred to the Royal Navy a number of the toughest and most dangerous sea assignments of the battle of Britain.

They are likely to get the "real dirty jobs" during the next few months, one officer aboard the leader of the first flotilla to arrive in a British port told during the Atlantic crossing from an East Coast Canadian port.

"You can compare Britain's position in this destroyer deal to that which might be put through by a reliable and well-established trucking firm, which has a particularly dirty job to do," he said. "So the first obtains fifty old but serviceable trucks to handle the job. That's what these warships are for."

WILL SHOW FIGHT

"And they will do the jobs, too, from what I've seen of them during this voyage of ours. There is going to be plenty of steel flying from our guns, when we catch the enemy. There is going to be some hot scrap and these extra-and-strips ships are going to show some fight."

In shop talk hours the navy men casually tell stories of naval engagements at Narvik, Namsos, Dunquerque and in the Mediterranean.

HOPE TO MEET GERMANS SOON

Nucleus of Eagle Squadron Rapidly Learning Tactics Of Air Warfare

WITH THE U.S. EAGLE SQUADRON OF THE R.A.F. IN ENGLAND, Oct. 14 (CP)—I have just flown with the first United States pilots of the newly-formed Eagle Squadron from our English countryside they hope soon to defend.

"They are not yet in the fighting line, but they expect to meet the German airmen before Christmas and show them something."

ELEVEN AMERICANS

There are eleven Americans here, the nucleus of the United States squadron. Others, already flying with R.A.F. coastal and fighter commands, probably will not be transferred from their present units, but further recruits enrolled in Canada soon will put the Eagles at their full strength.

Each American who volunteered to serve with the Eagle Squadron has been tested and graded according to previous experience.

Some are taking a brief ground course at an initial training wing in air navigation, gunnery, radio and other subjects.

When they are finished with the course, they will be ready to begin final training in air tactics and be-

Becomes Instructor

The Vancouver office of Canadian Airways has announced that R. L. The school is one of several operated by Canadian Airways as contractors under the Commonwealth Training Plan.

REMOTE FROM SETTLEMENTS

Three Air Bases on Pacific Coast Really "Outposts Of Empire"

OTTAWA, Oct. 14 (CP)—Before the war the Royal Canadian Air Force maintained one seaplane training base in British Columbia, but now there are at least seven fully-manned bases on the Pacific Coast. It was disclosed today.

"These R.C.A.F. air bases, which are as far from the nearest settlement as the tip of the iceberg," said a statement issued from the office of the director of public information.

The statement said at least three of the seven bases may well be termed "outposts of Empire," for they are entirely remote from any settlement. These three are at Ucluelet and Coal Harbor on Vancouver Island, and at Allford Bay in the Queen Charlotte Islands, "the first line of defence for the extreme Northern Coast area."

"To such stations as there are assigned heavy flying boat bombers for reconnaissance out over the ocean," the statement said.

NEAR PRINCE RUPERT It said another R.C.A.F. base is established near Prince Rupert and the Northern Mainland coast. This base would form the second line of defence in that area.

"Workmen are swarming over R.C.A.F. West Coast bases, rushing new buildings to completion to augment the strength of Western Air Command," the statement continued. "Fighter squadrons will be based strategically should there exist the possibility of invasion by enemy aircraft."

"Reconnaissance bombers range out over the long ground swells rolling in from the open Pacific. Fair weather or foul; they keep protective watch."

"Current activities of R.C.A.F. stations of Western Air Command in British Columbia include not only routine bomber reconnaissance patrols, but dive bombing and fighter patrols."

HER CASH CONUNDRUM Full of admiration for his own financial knowledge, Smith began to discuss the state of affairs over the supper table.

"I must confess," he said, "that the money market worries me a good deal."

OBJECTED TO ALL PARTIES

Section of Japanese Against Alliance With Britain, America or Axis

The decision to join the Axis powers—Germany and Italy—did not meet with the unanimous approval of the Japanese people. According to advice received here recently there was a considerable movement against joining up with any outside country for some little time prior to the actual consummation of the pact. Objectors to any proposed pact were numerous and some of them prominent.

Three hundred members of a Tokyo Japanese patriotic organization met early in September and drafted a resolution against forming a foreign policy which would incline to either Britain or the Axis powers. The patriots held any alliance would be strictly counter to the Imperial way and would be neither autonomous or independent.

MASS MEETING The strict elimination of dependence on other powers in the nation's highest policy and the prompt squelching of any "political plot" which might be detected in various movements for the "reorientation of diplomatic policy" was urged and before adjourning, the members decided to organize a mass meeting to silence "pro-British and German-flattering" elements.

Pro-British Japanese who participated in the meeting, held on September 7, included Prince Tomohide Iwakura, member of the House of Peers; Rear Admiral Viscount Kikugumi Inoue, retired; Lieut.-General Masazo Okudaira, retired; Joichi Yamaji, member of the House of Representatives, and other Japanese high in business and professional life.

One of the principal speakers stated it was equally as wrong to adopt a pro-Axis policy as it was to go off the deep end for Britain and America as in the past. The speaker held there was too much vacillating favoritism for Western powers and not enough pro-Japanese spirit within Japan. They are many people who profess pro-British or pro-German sentiments, but those belonging to the pro-Japanese are mighty scarce.

NO DIFFERENCE The pro-German elements are no different from the pro-British admirers. "There is no objection," the speaker said, "to studying German merits and methods, but such study should be performed objectively. But this is not the rule, and Japanese Germanophiles simply are aping Germany—to such an extent that it makes one sick. Worst of all, they are affected by the psychology of opportunism, which itself is disgusting. These persons seem to think only in terms of benefiting Germany. This is, indeed, miserable for a great nation like Japan, which calls itself the stabilizing force of East Asia, but still is unable to shake off the policy of dependence."

"What is to be gained by abandoning the policy of reliance on Britain and America, only to substitute it with the policy of depending on Germany and Italy. Japan must depend on no country but itself, adopting a truly independent and autonomous course. This should be understood clearly by the entire nation."

CAPITAL ROCKED IN NIGHT ATTACK

As always, the bark of the anti-aircraft arose first over the suburbs—the bruised front line in the long siege of London—and rolled higher and higher as the Germans sought to smash through to the centre of the city.

SCATTERED RAIDS This violent Monday night attack capped a day of quick, scattered raids over many areas of Britain and two thrusts at London itself which were turned back with little damage done.

Elsewhere in the Kingdom, however, no such success was claimed. In a town in Western Scotland where five bombs fell, more than 200 families had to be removed from a time bomb section. On the East Anglian coast civilians died in the wreckage of their homes. In a town near London there were more fatalities. A single bomb destroyed four houses in a row. The South and the Midlands were repeatedly assaulted.

In a Northeast town a "number" were killed by a whole load of bombs dropped in one cluster in a crowded section.

In a public shelter there the wife and three children of an Air Raid Precautions worker were blown from one end to the other but emerged unhurt, while four people who had been sitting with them were killed. The mayor of the town opened an emergency relief fund for the victims, himself donating £1,000 (about $4,450).

BIG BOMBER DOWNED An unusual victory for the British defence—destruction of a vast four-engined Nazi bomber of the sort rarely used and hard to replace—was reported from a London suburb on Monday. It was said unofficially the great craft was the victim of ground guns.

Here in the city 3,000 troops—"Pioneer Corps"—worked quietly amid the air alarms to restore the town's face as nearly as possible. Joined by men recruited through the labor exchanges, they pulled down dangerous standing walls of smashed buildings and cleared away obstacles to traffic.

While no official total was given, there were heavy casualties in London. In Liverpool and two industrial Northeast towns not further identified. In those two towns alone, at least fifteen were believed killed; in London many casualties were caused by the destruction of an entire block of flats. The greatest sufferers in Liverpool were residents of a tenement block.

The Press Association announced it was believed those killed in London included three or possibly four nuns in a smashed convent.

SEATTLE, Oct. 14 (AP)—Friel Allen Cooper, twenty-four, an aviation machinist mate aboard the aircraft carrier Lexington, was killed yesterday when the small private

Digestion—The Great Process of Life

Acute indigestion may arise from overeating or the use of food which is difficult to digest.

But chronic indigestion, which plays with you, causing sleeplessness, loss of appetite, bodily pains and depressed spirits, is usually the result of torpid liver and constipation. The process of digestion is held up and the body is poisoned by accumulated waste matter.

The use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills helps to arouse the torpid liver to action, so bile flows freely to the intestines, stimulating these organs and soon everything is going fine. What a pleasure it is to enjoy your meals and feel that there will be no discomfort afterwards.

Early Gains in New York Mart Soon Wiped Out

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP)—Efforts to tack another small-sized rally on the stock market encountered opposition today and early gains running to a point or so were substantially reduced or turned into losses of as much as the close.

Business news remained fairly comforting as traders returned from their lengthy week-end holiday and early light buying of favored issues was attributed mainly to this influence.

At the same time most were not slow in cashing minor profits when the list started up in the first hour. Spotty trends were the rule thereafter.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off 1/4 of a point at 43.9. Dealings were negligible throughout and transfers for the five hours amounted to 402,350 shares, against 404,250 last Friday. Handicapping sentiment, brokers said, were confounding war developments in the Balkans, persistence of tension over Far Eastern affairs, and the inability of Wall Street to reach definite conclusions regarding domestic political currents.

The bond market, reflected a high degree of selectivity among buyers today, with bad breaks in some groups offset by equally strong rises in others.

The utilities rose to a new 1940 high in the averages. A moderate demand appeared early in trading for a group of Japanese Government issues. Gainers of major fractions to more than a point included Tokio 5-1-2s, Oriental Development 6s, and the Government 5-1-2s.

Denmark 6-1-2s cracked 6 1/2 points to 25 and Italian 7s lost another 5 to close at 38 3/8. Some of the South Americans also backed-tracked for sizable losses.

Make All-Brans Muffins a "REGULAR" Habit

Many women make it a point to have All-Brans muffins on the table at every breakfast, because so many people need just that much added "bulk" in their diet to keep "regular." Here's how to make:

BASIC BRAN MUFFIN RECIPE

2 tablespoons shortening 1 cup milk
1 cup sugar 1 cup flour
1 egg 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup Kellogg's All-Brans 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder

Cream shortening and sugar thoroughly; add egg and beat until creamy. Beat in All-Brans and milk; let stand until most of moisture is taken up. Beat flour with salt and baking powder; add to first mixture and stir only until flour disappears. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full and bake in moderately hot oven (400°F.) about 30 minutes.

Yield: 8 large muffins (3 inches in diameter) or 12 small muffins (2 1/2 inches in diameter).

Be sure you use Kellogg's All-Brans, because it has the right taste and texture to make delicious muffins. Also you know that it is an effective source of "bulk" and the intestinal tonic vitamin B<sub>1</sub>.

According to Culbertson

Let me again remind readers of this column that there still is time to enter the 1940 self-rating bridge examination. If you missed the first five questions, obtain back copies of the paper and copy the questions that appeared Tuesday and yesterday.

TODAY'S QUESTIONS
The answer will be given next Tuesday.

Question 6—You are West, declarer at a contract of six spades. North opens the dummy of hearts. Your hand and dummy are as follows:

West (You) East (Dummy)
♠ A K J 10 9 ♠ Q 4 3 2
♥ A K Q ♥ 6 5 4
♦ A Q 9 ♦ 7 6 3 2
♣ A K ♣ 7 5

The missing trumps are divided 2-2. How do you play the hand? (No long explanation is required. One sentence can bring out the vital point.)

Question 7—Only East-West vulnerable. The bidding proceeds:
North East South West
1 ♠ 1 ♠ ?
You are South, and hold:

♠ A J 9 7 ♥ Q 10 4 ♦ J 6 A K 10 8 3
What call can you make?

POSTERS MAKE STRONG APPEAL

Collection Shown in Ottawa Show Trend of British Campaign

OTTAWA, Oct. 14 (CP).—First public display of British war posters, now at the National Gallery here, brings to Canadians a graphic round-up of the various appeals made to the British people during the first year of war.

Three main types of appeals are shown in the collection, sent to Canada by the office of the Canadian High Commissioner to London at the request of H. O. McCurry, director of the National Gallery. One group shows the inspirational appeal made to the public by the British Government. It depicts the resources of the Empire, with scenes from Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the West Indies and African colonies, accompanied by tabulations of production and labeled "Sins of War."

Other vivid posters, the same as millions throughout the United Kingdom, carry simply the slogan of Supply Minister Herbert Morrison: "Go to It!" Then there is a: extract from a speech by Prime Minister Churchill at Manchester last January: "Come then, and let us to the task, to battle and the toll. Each to our part, each to our station. fill the armies, rule the air, pour out munitions, strangle the U-boats, plough the lands, build the ships, guard the streets, succor the wounded, uplift the downcast, and honor the brave. Let us go forward together, in all parts of the Empire, in all parts of this island. There is not a week nor a day nor an hour to be lost."

Warning the British against the effect of gossip and loose talk which might give valuable information to the enemy, is another group of striking posters. Backed up by photographs, they are finished in color, and with eye-catching lettering. One shows a young airman saying goodbye to his family. Across this picture is written "They Talked." Underneath, below the words, "This Happened," is the shattered wreckage of an airplane.

Others in this group demonstrate that idle talk may give the enemy information of ship movements and location of vital centres, causing great damage and loss of life. "Thousands of Lives Were Lost in the Last War Through Carelessness—Don't Talk."

Also in the "Don't Talk" group are a number of humorous cartoons by Fougasse, artist for Punch. In spite of their humor, they impart warnings against discussion of war matters, since all portray the enemy, in the persons of Hitler or Goering, with prominent ears turned toward the talkers.

Air raid precaution posters are more demonstrative. Instructions as to procedure in air raids are printed, usually accompanied by pictures of persons doing the right or wrong thing. They advise everyone to go to the nearest air raid shelter, or to their homes if they are within five minutes' walking distance. They warn against "sky gazing" during the raids.

by these aircraft on airbases at Wesel, Woonedrecht and Texel, on gun positions on the Islands of Borkum and Terschelling, on the seaplane base at Norderey, and oil plants at Gelsenkirchen.

The heaviest attack against the channel ports was concentrated on Calais, where bombers shuttled back and forth for four hours losing their cargoes. Both engines of one bomber went dead near Borkum, its pilot reported, but began functioning again after a long glide to the English coast and he returned to the attack and bombed shipping and docks at Flushing.

Other bombers heavily attacked intermediate ports from Ostend to Le Havre. Despite heavy anti-aircraft fire and the necessity of flying almost altogether "by ear" only one raider was lost.

SWEPT OVER BERLIN
 BERLIN, Oct. 15 (CP).—British bombers unloaded many bombs on the German capital during two raids last night and early today. The first alarm was uneventful but the second sent the population scurrying to underground shelters.

Some of the British planes swooped low over the city as anti-aircraft guns broke into full roar. A communiqué said the raiders "dropped bombs which damaged a number of dwellings and also Virchow Hospital was hit, but without causing injury to anyone."

The Germans claimed three planes were shot down by fighter planes while en route to Berlin. The night was clear and puffs of smoke from bursting anti-aircraft shells could be seen plainly. Shrapnel peppered rooftops.

George Brent and Virginia Bruce Starred in Dramatic Film at Dominion Today

The Dominion Theatre's new film today is Warner Bros' fast-paced, dynamic story of an underworld mouthpiece, "The Man Who Talked Too Much," starring George Brent and Virginia Bruce.

Taking full advantage of the strong Frank J. Collins play, Warner cast the film with suitable capable players as Brenda Marshall, Richard Barthelmess, starring a screen comeback in a character role, and William Lundigan.

A dramatic situation opens the story as the confession of a murderer clears a boy of the crime for which he was executed, convicted by District Attorney Stephen Forbes, played by George Brent. Steve has been too successful in his convictions and is suddenly shocked into resigning.

Finland Scene Will Be Shown For Red Cross

Madame De Gripenberg, a distinguished Englishwoman, and well-known lecturer, who is to speak here next Saturday night, has been actively interested in Red Cross work for many years, not only in London, where today she is official Finnish Red Cross representative, but also in Albania, Spain and Portugal.

The object of her Dominion-wide tour is, chiefly, to thank the people of Canada for their generous help to the women and children of Finland during the time of the Russian invasion and to exhibit motion pictures and slides of Red Cross in action in that country and England. Some of these pictures show how the money collected by the Canadian Red Cross was spent in the purchase of garments and records the wearing of some made by Red Cross women workers across Canada.

The lecture will be given in the Memorial Hall next Saturday at 8 p.m. As this is an educational presentation of Red Cross, no charge will be made for admission. A silver collection will be taken for air raid sufferers in Britain.

What Today Means

"LIBRA"

If October 15 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.; from 2:45 to 4:45 p.m., and from 8:45 to 10:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:45 to 10:45 a.m. from 6:45 to 8:45 p.m., and from 10:45 p.m. until midnight.

Most of the North-while results today will be accomplished without any "flourish with trumpets," but by quiet, methodical processes of reasoning. Brooding over petty grievances will be the means of a lazy brain finding something to occupy it, but an active one will have no time for the consideration of little annoyances or the harboring of resentment. Put the stamp of originality on your work today, if you wish it to be distinctive and attract attention. Dilatory tactics will add greatly to the woes of mankind today, so avoid making your contribution to them by deliberately delaying doing whatever it is you have to do. Inattention will be one of the chief causes of many people having to retrace their steps today.

It will pay to listen attentively whenever anyone is talking to you, so avoid making your contribution today, it may be found that it is the old story of the pot calling the kettle black, so consider this carefully before you do any. Married and engaged couples, and those who are listening to the sweetest story every told, should regard true love as being "one soul binding two bodies," and accord it the most gentle treatment.

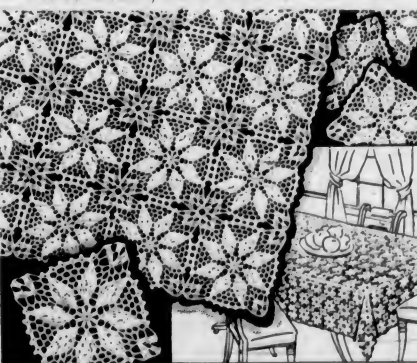

If a woman and October 15 is your birthday, if you make it a rule to give just as much as you are expected to take, you will find people are likely to be careful of the treatment that they accord you. Stand up for your own rights and realize that there is no virtue in letting anyone get away with murder. You can accomplish far more in a quiet dignified manner than in an excitable or tempestuous fashion. Your accomplishments as a purchasing agent, instructor, dietitian, writer, actress, sales agent, or in the operation of a business of your own, might attract considerable attention and enable you to make plenty of money. Do your part to create harmonious conditions in your home and your married life should be a complete success.

The child born on October 15 ought to, in time, develop high ideals that it will endeavor to live up to, despite its love for power, and a natural inclination to dominate other people. Children born on this date are likely to be successful.

PUTTING IT NICELY

During the progress of a lawsuit a witness was cross-examined regarding the habits and character of the defendant.

"Has Mr. M— a reputation for being abnormally lazy?" asked counsel, briskly.

"Well, sir, it's this way . . . " "Will you kindly answer the question asked?" struck in the irascible lawyer.

"Well, sir, I was going to say it's this way: I don't want to do the defendant an injustice, and I won't go so far as to say he's lazy exactly; but if it required any voluntary work on his part to digest his food, he'd die from lack of nourishment."

WOMEN GUIDE AIR DEFENDERS

Take Over Important Code And Cypher Posts in United Kingdom

LONDON, Oct. 12 (CP)—A new school for code and cypher (signalling) officers of the Women's Auxiliary Air Force has been opened in a big country house in one of the counties of England and is the first of its kind in the service. It is administered by the Technical Training Command of the Royal Air Force.

The W.A.A.F. plays an increasingly important role in providing officers for code and cypher duties at R.A.F. stations and the new school trains newly appointed officers in R.A.F. organization and in the general duties for which a W.A.A.F. officer is responsible.

The course is short and is run on the lines of an R.A.F. staff college course. The officer students are given lectures on a variety of subjects, including discipline and morale, service etiquette and customs, first aid and hygiene, and anti-gas precautions. In addition, there is physical training and drills, given by sergeant instructors of the R.A.F. Each day two students undertake the duties of orderly officer, while another two are appointed president and vice-president of the mess. In this way they learn something of service procedure. Once a week there is guest night.

POSTED TO DUTIES

On completion of the course the officers are posted from the school to R.A.F. units throughout the country. In addition to their code and cypher duties they are then responsible, in conjunction with the administrative W.A.A.F. officers, for the welfare and recreation of the many airwomen who form part of the establishment of all R.A.F. stations.

The W.A.A.F. officer in charge of the school explained that since the outbreak of war all the student officers had previously served in the ranks as aircraftwomen or sub-officers. "They are a fine type," she said. "All of them are keen and very responsive to the aims of the course. I am confident that this innovation will lead to a higher standard of W.A.A.F. officers generally."

Small Doses of Insulin

BRING RELIEF TO MENTAL PATIENTS

One of the effective forms of treatment for mental patients who are in an excited or even dangerous frame of mind is the use of hot baths. The hot baths so soothe the nerves that the patient becomes quiet, often going off into a sound sleep. The use of quieting drugs is another method of allaying violent symptoms in these patients.

Insulin, causing shock, is now being used in practically all mental hospitals. That doses of insulin kept so small that they do not cause shock but still help mental patients is recorded by Drs. C. R. Bennett and T. K. Miller, Camarillo, California, in the American Journal of Psychiatry. They used these small doses of insulin in 125 cases which formerly had been treated by both baths and quieting drugs. They state that nearly every case of acute manic excitement was controlled within an average period of thirty-six hours with insulin, without the use of hot baths or quieting drugs. The hot baths and quieting drugs are now used only in epileptic cases or in those cases where excitable behaviour occurs only at night. Improvement in newly admitted cases of dementia precox (peripetent dream state), depression and melancholy states is in many instances almost miraculous because the changes are so rapid. The improvement does not continue if the insulin is discontinued as soon as improvement is noticed. Usually from three to eight weeks of continued treatment is required to bring about complete relief of the symptoms.

All patients improve remarkably in their general physical condition, gaining weight on an average of fifteen pounds within six weeks. Warts, carbuncles, and acne (pimples) in these patients disappear quickly. It has become "routine" now to give insulin to any patient threatened with boils. Acne does not always respond favorably.

By the use of insulin the so-called "disturbed" ward has passed away. When we remember that mental hospitals have more patients than all the other hospitals combined and that dementia precox patients make up the largest number of mental patients, it is gratifying to know that insulin in small doses is bringing relief to so many of these cases.

VETERAN OFFICER DEAD

TORONTO, Oct. 13 (CP)—Brigadier Joseph Bartlett Rogers, C.M.G., D.S.O., M.C., V.D., a distinguished veteran of the first Great War, who rose from the ranks of the Canadian army, died here today at the age of fifty-four. Brigadier Rogers joined the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada in 1904 as a private.

Is there an Uncle in the House?

THERE WAS, IN THIS CASE!

THIS CHARMING LITTLE GIRL, with her winsome ways and her sweet smile and chatter, has captured the hearts and minds of her family. She has admiring Aunts and Uncles, Godparents and even big brothers simply crazy about her.

OF COURSE, AS SOON AS she arrived her Father immediately called in the Dominion Life Representative and arranged extra Life Insurance to provide security and protection for little Dorothy and Dorothy's mother.

BUT THERE WAS AN UNCLE in the case. On Dorothy's first birthday, Uncle Robert, just daffy about her, said to himself—"Say! what about making sure that this young lady gets the finest education the world can provide!" So, having heard about Dominion Life Educational Insurance, he asked a Representative. He found that for about $1.00 a week he could ensure that, at 18 years of age, Dorothy would receive a large cheque for $1,000 from Dominion Life. He took out a Dominion Life Educational Policy for Dorothy and he is feeling prouder than ever.

Now—what about your children? Or are you the Uncle in the case—or an Aunt—or—? Have you a little "Dorothy" or "John Junior", who is the pride of your eye?

It's an idea, isn't it? Send in the COUPON now, while you are thinking about it.

REVELLERS TRIM VARSITY; UNITED LOSES SOCCER

VICTORIA GRIDDERS STAGE GRAND RALLY TO WHIP STUDENTS

Two Last-Stanza Touchdowns by Vic Dale Clinches Decision for Local Squad—Score, 13-12, for Revellers in Early Stages of Fourth Period—1,500 Attend

LEAGUE STANDING

	P.W.	L.	T.	Pts.
Victoria	2	0	29	13-4
Vancouver	1	0	1	6-0
Varsity	1	0	1	12-23-0

Packing more punch, power and speed than any former Victoria grid machine, Coach George Deacon's Revellers trimmed the wings of the University of British Columbia Thunderbirds, 23-12, before the city's largest football crowd in many years at Macdonald Park yesterday afternoon. Some 1,500 fans overflowed the large grandstand and lined the gridiron to witness the exciting battle. Coming to the city on an excursion boat, Varsity had some 200 rabid rooters to cheer them along.

Both sides were somewhat weak on the defence and the ball-carriers had plenty of opportunities to display their talents. Varsity completed three forwards to Victoria's two, but one of the locals went for a touchdown.

Although pleased with the showing of his proteges, who returned to the grid wars only last year after the game had been dormant in this city for a number of years, Coach Deacon liked the way the students and figured they would be a much-improved team after a few more workouts together.

If two games in three days was a tough assignment, the Revellers didn't show it after the first few minutes of the game.

Things looked a trifle dark in the initial quarter as Varsity ran up a 6-0 lead. But the Revellers came back, punched over two touchdowns and hung up one point on a safety-touch in the second stanza, making it 12-6.

They scored unconverted touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters without a reply from the battered Thunderbirds. Vic Dale carried the ball for the final touchdowns.

Varsity bested the locals in the first-quarter kicking duel, and then hung up valuable yardage. Dale could not get his punts away as the golden and blue-jerseyed lads charged hard, with the result that two of his kicks were blocked.

With the ball on the Revellers' twenty-five-yard line, Fairgreaves rolled off a first down. On the next play, Harmer smashed Victoria's centre for the touchdown. Teagle placed the pigskin between the posts, giving Varsity their only taste of the lead, 6-0.

And then the Revellers came to life. Barber had the best of an exchange of punts and the students found themselves on their own fifteen-yard line. They kicked, and Garrison snagged the ball on their twenty-six-yard line. Trying his second bull's pass of the day right over the line, Tom McKeechie seemed it to Harry Barber, who scampered across for a touchdown. Garrison converted, tying the score after three minutes of the second quarter. Ray Murdoch, sparkling back, received the Varsity kick-off on his own thirty-two. Then Murdoch, Garrison and Barber, quarterback, rolled off fifty-eight yards between them in making four successive first downs.

GARRISON CALLOPS

Again Garrison took the ball and didn't stop until he was run out of bounds on Varsity's one-yard line. The extra yard was a pushover for the young halfback and he converted, making the score 12-6. Tom McKeechie played a prominent part in the next local score with help from Groff Murdoch and Barber. Another completed pass to Barber made nine yards but the Revs lost fifteen yards for holding. With but a minute remaining, Barber tried a drop kick and Jim Smith and "Bus" Anderson went down fast to nail Harmer behind his own goal line. Victoria then led 13-6.

An intercepted forward pass by Dale of Varsity's own fifteen cut off a serious student threat. Varsity fought their way into pay-off territory again, however, but after being held twice were penalized ten yards for offside. Victoria cleared, but the Thunderbirds knocked again.

Teagle ran off a ten-yard gain and when the Revs were penalized for high tackling the ball was placed on their twenty-five yard stripe. After a nice gain, Fairgreaves stormed the remaining distance on a fake pass play and Teagle converted, with three minutes of the fourth quarter gone, to make the score 13-12 for Victoria.

Recovery by Jim Smith of a blocked kick paved the way for Revellers' third touchdown. After the ball had been carried to U.B.C.'s one-yard line by Dale, B. Murdoch and Garrison, Dale ploughed through the left side of the line to make it 13-12. He missed the convert.

After Victoria had held Varsity deep in their own territory from the kick-off, Dale received the students' kick on the twenty-five yard line. The rainy half then broke loose on a left end run and dove across the Thunderbird goal line. Again he missed the convert, but the Revellers had won 23-12.

In the midst of the game which preceded the headline fixture, the Centrals turned back St. Louis College, last year's Colonist Cup winners, by a score of 11-0.

Martial music was played by the Kinsmen Boys' Band and the Victoria Girls' Drill Team performed several drills on the field at half time.

Dr. John Sturdy and A. G. McLaughlin handled the game, and the Revellers' Anderson, Shields, Smith, Douglas, Berry, Harris, Jenkins, McDonald, Stevens, Coulson, McKay, Simpson, Thompson, Barber, Orogan, Fulton, Gornall, B. and G. Murdoch, Garrison, Sturrock, McKeechie and Dale.

U.B.C. Thunderbirds—Currie, Orr, McGee, Wallace, Buyers, Jablinski, Mattu, Buck, Moncton, Gardner, Tucker, Gardiner, Wood, Cole, Farris, Carmichael, Harmer, Nichols, Gindlay, Morrill, Frith, Teagle, Gorman and Fairgreaves.

BAKER TO PILOT DETROIT IN 1941

DETROIT, Oct. 14 (AP).—Del Baker, manager of Detroit Tigers, today signed a contract to pilot the American League champions in 1941. Salary terms were not disclosed, but Baker, it was announced, received a "substantial raise."

MARQUART SCORES KAYO

CHICAGO, Oct. 14 (AP).—Billy Marquart, hard-hitting Winnipeg lightweight, knocked out Johnny Pleasant, of Chicago, in the second round of the feature ten-round attraction at the Markland Gardens tonight. The Canadian weighed 137 1-2; Pleasant, 133 3-4.

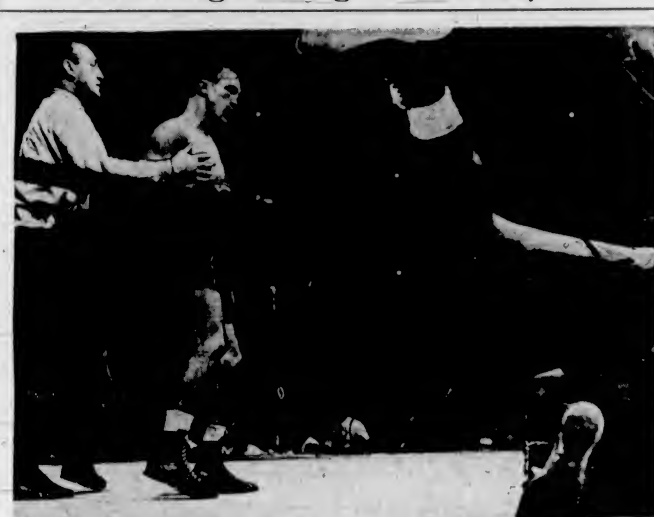

VIC DALE

WHO joined the Revellers this season after one year in junior ranks, was a potent factor in the Victoria team's 23-12 win over the U.B.C. Thunderbirds at Macdonald Park yesterday afternoon. With the locals in front, 13-12, Dale chalked up two touchdowns in the last quarter to put the decision on ice.

Henry Armstrong was all wound up and in high gear when he met Fritz Zivic—but he lost his crown. Armstrong was still going when the fight ended—but you can't see where you are going with both eyes punched close. The wild fight at Madison Square Garden thrilled the crowd, as Armstrong stayed in there charging until the finish. This unusual picture doesn't show much of Armstrong, but it is almost the only one that shows him on the canvas, where he landed for a few seconds during the last of the fifteenth round, just before Zivic was awarded the decision.

Nanaimo Hopes to Have Smart Squad In Coast Football

NANAIMO, Oct. 14.—Manager Jimmy Knight believes he has the makings of a soccer team that will bring football back to Nanaimo as it was when the city was supporting a twice-winning Canadian championship team. He has three of the old city team playing, Edmunds, Grey and McGregor, and a fast bunch of young players to work with. On Sunday they played rings around a team of the D.C.O.R.'s, winning, 5-1, and Knight expects a win when the city meet St. Andrews in a Coast League fixture here next Sunday. Knight has also signed Jimmy Anderson, here with the Southern Alberta Regiment, who formerly played with the Coleman, Alberta, team.

Sunday's game was marred by a serious injury sustained by a soldier player, J. Crookall, who was ruptured when jumping for a ball. He was taken to hospital by the field ambulance from the military camp.

St. Catharines Turns Back Vancouver Team In Deciding Fixture

Eastern Stick Handlers Trounce Burrards, 18-5, to Regain Possession of Historic Mann Cup, Symbolic of Canadian Lacrosse Championship

By DICK SHERIDAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer
TORONTO, Oct. 14 (AP).—The Mann Cup came back East tonight when St. Catharines whipped Vancouver for the third straight time in the best-of-five series to determine Canada's senior lacrosse champions. The A's, who dropped the first game of the series, clinched their great comeback with an 18-5 victory to win the cup they lost to New Westminster last year.

The battering suffered by the youthful Burrards during their two previous defeats slowed them down to a walk tonight as they took their worst defeat of the series before a Thanksgiving holiday crowd of 6,848. The veteran Ontario club, playing their third Mann Cup series, scored at will as they ran in eight goals in the first half to fashion an 8-3 lead at halftime.

St. Catharines won the title in 1938 and lost to New Westminster Advances in the final last year.

GOALIES STAR
The rival goalies, Walt Lee, of Vancouver, and Bill Whitaker, of St. Catharines, were the stars of a game in which the heavy scoring was evenly distributed. Lee made twenty-five stops to the thirty-three turned aside by his keen-eyed rival. The Vancouver goalie saved sensationally in the final minutes when he stopped Bill Fitzgerald as the latter strove to put the ball in the corner while right in the goalmouth. A brief flare-up in the third quarter, between George Hope and Roy Cavallin brought both players match penalties. The outbreak occurred in the penalty box and the police intervened to break up the slugging match.

Bill Wilson and Fitzgerald each scored three times for the winners.

Registers Twice for Victoria United

YOUNG centre-forward of the Victoria United soccer team, who scored two of the locals' three markers in yesterday's Pacific Coast Football League match with Vancouver St. Saviours, Cosier gave the United the lead on two occasions, scoring the first marker of the game in the seven-minute mark, and registering Victoria's third and final goal. St. Saviours, with the aid of two penalties, finally wound up on the long end of a 4-3 score. Approximately 1,000 persons witnessed the fixture which marked the opening of the local soccer season.

Former Canadian Soccer Champions Suffer 2-0 Set-back in League Tilt

VANCOUVER, Oct. 14 (AP).—Saint Andrews made their 1940 debut into the Pacific Coast Soccer League today, whipping the one-time Dominion champion North Shore United, 2-0, in a rugged Thanksgiving Day game that was marked by a fluke goal and a fight that developed into a free-for-all.

It was the first showing of the season for either team. The league schedule opened Saturday, when Saint Saviours drew 1-1 with Vancouver Radials.

North Shore, last season's Pacific Coast League winners, looked nothing like the polished aggregation of 1939 and were on the defensive almost throughout. They missed several chances to score.

Halfway through the first half, Saint Andrews were awarded a free kick from centre and Erling Storvick planted the ball at the North Shore goalmouth. Jack Horne, North Shore right back, booted it into his own goal in his anxiety to clear, giving Saint Andrews a 1-0 lead at halftime.

Shortly after the turnover the Saints went on the attack, and Frank Ambler centred for Johnny Webber to head in a second goal for the Saints.

ORDERED FROM FIELD
The fight came when Jimmy Spencer, North Shore captain, and Cecil Goodheart, of the Scots, who played with North Shore last year, struck at each other and were ordered from the field. Once off the pitch they resumed their battle and were joined by spectators in a general free-for-all that lasted several minutes.

The teams:
North Shore—Norm Willington; Jack Horne, Bob Harrison; Ronny Hewitt, Jimmy Spencer, John Harrison; Russ Hendricks, Basil Robinson; Jack Fildes, Jack Brown and Norm McLeod. Spares—Tommy Cummings and Bobby Harris.

Saint Andrews—Bob Newbold; Erling Storvick, Ambrose McLatchey; Billy Hyslop, West Anderson, Cecil Goodheart; George Greig, Jack Thompson, Johnny Webber, Max Osorovsky, Frank Ambler. Referee—Andy Hunter.

Father (after visit to son at college).—"Enjoyed my visit, son? Good-bye, and write home often."
Son—"Thank you, father, that's mighty generous of you."

Mainland Eleven Defeats Victoria By Single Marker

Two Penalties Pave Way for 4-3 Soccer Triumph For Vancouver St. Saviours in Pacific Coast League Match—Ralph Cosier Scores Twice

Taking the upper hand in the last twenty minutes of play when Victoria United showed signs of tiring, Vancouver St. Saviours yesterday came from behind to eke out a 4-3 victory in a Pacific Coast Football League match played at Royal Athletic Park.

Locals established a 2-1 lead at the breather, and showed in front again in the final stanza after the visitors knocked the score at 2-2. St. Saviours came back to tie up the game for the second time, and then capped home the winning marker a few minutes before the last whistle.

Mainlanders played the better football and displayed superior teamwork, but two penalties, one in each half—costly to Victoria—paved the way to victory for the Saints.

United, playing together for the first time this season, made the afternoon chores quite heavy for the visitors for the opening stanza and well into the last half. But condition finally told, and the Victoria Club, with new players on their line-up, and positional changes, could not stave off the determined closing bid of the Mainlanders.

COSIER SCORES
After seventeen minutes of fairly even play, Ralph Cosier, shifted to centre forward to fill the vacancy created by the absence of Jimmie Worswick, crashed the scoring column and put Victoria United one goal up. Roy Barnes, clever half-back, and the best man on the field for the locals, lofted a long pass goalward, and Cosier, still on the run, tapped the ball past Dan Kulai, visiting goalie, and it rolled into the empty net.

St. Saviours staged a dangerous offensive from the kick-off, and Bobby Moss, Victoria net custodian, was called upon to make two quick saves. It was while the local defence was attempting to clear, that a penalty was whistled against them, when a St. Saviours player was brought down in the middle of a scramble for the loose ball. Lee Morley took the spot-kick and sagged the netting behind Moss with a knee-high shot.

Victoria returned play to the Vancouver end of the field, and just before the breather moved ahead for a second time. Ralph Cosier fired goalward from the right side of the field, and Harvey Hall, fullback, in attempting to clear, kicked the ball against Noel Morgan, Kulai, who came out of his net frequently during the afternoon, was "not at home," and again the ball rolled into the empty goal. The breather arrived with the score 2-1 in favor of Victoria.

As the final half opened the Victoria made two changes. Waugh went on for Gemmell and Muir for Morley. Victoria substituted Gordon Cooper for Roy Barnes, the latter requesting the rest.

UPPER HAND
United held the upper hand as the canto opened, but the forward line failed to take advantage of the scoring opportunities. At the other end of the field Ernie Butcher headed the ball under the crossbar and was robbed of a certain tally when the leather bounced back into play.

Ted Enefer, a late entry into the game as a substitute for Oscar Roels, bagged the first marker of the final stanza and the tally which knotted the score at 2-2. A foul was blown on Charlie Restell, Victoria centre half, in the penalty area, and the visiting forward scored from the spot.

CHAPTER XLVIII

Carol passed a hand over her eyes. When the tear mist cleared, she read on:

"I try to explain myself, Carol. I'll get mixed up and sorry for myself and you'll be sorry for me. I don't want that. I've been wrong about life and people, thwarted, with kinks in my character. You've been wrong about me, thinking I was something I wasn't. But I've never been wrong about you. And all I ask of you now, all I hope for, is that you won't think too badly of me and that you won't be ashamed for having loved me for two years. The best of me went into loving you, but I fooled you. Mainly, I think, I fooled myself and cheated myself. I have Edwina and Mr. Hartley to thank for knowing that it should go without saying how ashamed I am and how grateful I am to them."

Until tonight I thought I was a person standing alone, fighting alone, fighting everything and everybody that had hurt me when I was young and poor, and Edwina made me the laughing stock of Newton. But tonight I realized that I'd been loved by Mr. Hartley, your father and you, and that the girl who had made a laughing stock was a staunch friend with a better mind and a greater courage than mine.

And so the money I was going to use for our home will be given back to Mr. Hartley. He told me last night that he didn't want it back now; that the money itself was unimportant. But I'm going to pay it back. And he agreed to have his will changed, leaving his property and money to charity and old friends and neighbors instead of me.

And where does that leave me, Carol? Free-free for the first time since I began this ghastly thing. Free—you've no idea how it feels not to be a thief any more. The feeling spoiled things between us more than you will ever know.

It leaves you free, too. I release you from your promise to marry me because I'm going away—where, I don't know yet, but far away from Newton. I could stay—I'm not being driven away—and go on with my work. But I don't think I could take the pain on the back from people who think I'm good political material or stand in a court of justice. I've always been very serious about the law.

And I release you from your promise because Edwina told me about Norman Alexander and so I can't do anything except accept defeat from you as graciously as possible and wish you all happiness. Oddly enough, I'm not very hurt, perhaps because I've hurt myself so much and others, and it's good to be free.

Have I said it all, I wonder? I'm tired all over and I can't think well. Give your father my thanks and best wishes. He was a tower of strength tonight. Human life, even the life of a blind man past eighty, is precious to him. I've learned a lot tonight. I'll never hurt myself again and I know that people are not my enemies but my friends. And I can think about my mother now and not push the thought of her away from me.

God bless you dear, lovely Carol, Alan.

The letter was still in her hand when her father knocked and came in. He came to her, took the letter from her and read it slowly. Then, folding it, he turned to her and his smile was an amused reproach.

"This throws a new light on the situation. You and young Alexander. . . But come down to breakfast, dear. And this letter is Alan's vindication. How close we can be to people and not know them at all! a superficial closeness. I approve of his going away. Good for him. He'll throw off the shackles

Little Stories for Bedtime

The Three Watchers

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

When Paddy the Beaver slapped the water with his broad tail, making a noise like a pistol shot, Lightfoot the Deer understood that this was meant as a warning of danger. He was on his feet instantly with eyes, ears and nose seeking the cause of Paddy's warning. After a moment or two Lightfoot stole softly up to the top of a little ridge some distance back from Paddy's pond, but from the top of which he could see the whole of the pond. There he hid among some close-growing young hemlock trees. It wasn't long before he saw a hunter with a terrible gun come down to the shore of the pond.

Now the hunter had heard Paddy slap the water with his broad tail, of course. There would have been something very wrong with his ears had he failed to hear it. "Confound that beaver," muttered the hunter crossly. "If there was a deer anywhere around this pond he probably is on his way now. I'll have a look around and see if there are any signs."

So the hunter kept on to the edge of Paddy's pond and then began to walk around it, studying the ground as he walked. Presently he found the footprints of Lightfoot in the mud where Lightfoot had gone down to the pond to drink.

"I thought as much," muttered the hunter. "Those tracks were made last night. That deer probably was lying down somewhere near here, and I might have got a shot but for that pesky beaver. I'll just look the land over and then I think I'll wait here a while. If that deer isn't too badly scared he may come back."

So the hunter went all around the pond, looking into all likely hiding places. He found where Lightfoot had been lying, and he knew that in all probability Lightfoot had been there when Paddy gave the danger signal. "It's of no use for me to of shame and regret. He'll find himself again. But he's a good lad who has already found himself, don't you think?"

"Edwina has gone, too. I telephoned her house. She went to New York this morning." Turning to her father, Carol met his mild blue eyes directly. "My heart turned over when I read Alan's letter. I wanted to call him back and tell him I'd try to be what I meant to be to him before all this happened."

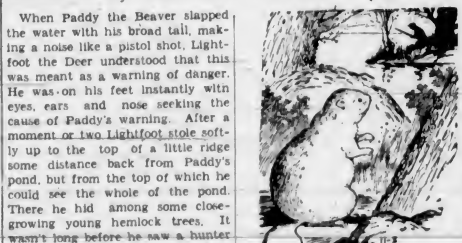

She smiled. "I don't know whether I'm happy or sad."

"You're happy and enormously relieved. And you're going away too. Away from this house and me and Newton. But not to young Alexander."

"What is his name?"

"Norman. . . He chuckled. "But not to Norman—not yet. No girl wants to get up out of a mud puddle and go to her lover. And no girl wants to go from a funeral to her lover. That wouldn't be wise, you see. You don't want to go from yesterday to Norman. Love can wait and it's better for the waiting. Your body and your heart and your mind are sick. Repair them and then go."

Paddy watched the hunter

try to follow him," thought the hunter. "It is too dry for me to track him. He may not be so badly scared after all. I'll just find a good place and wait."

So the hunter found an old log behind some small hemlock trees and there sat down. He could see all around Paddy's pond. He sat perfectly still. He was a clever hunter, and he knew that so long as he did not move he was not likely to be noticed by any sharp eyes that might come that way. What he didn't know was that Lightfoot had been watching him all the time, and was even then standing where he could see him. And another thing he didn't know was that Paddy the Beaver had come out of his house and swimming under water had reached a hiding place on the opposite shore, from which he too, had seen the hunter sit down on the log.

So the hunter watched for Lightfoot and Lightfoot and Paddy watched the hunter.

Oak Bay Shotmaker Fires Two-Over-Par Round in First Eighteen Holes for Title—Bill McDermid Has Low Gross Score

Firing a 72, two strokes over par, Jim Squire, Oak Bay sharpshooter, set a hot pace in the first eighteen holes of the city championship, played Sunday at the Royal Colwood Golf Club. The Victoria Club star put together rounds of 35 and 37, being two over par on the homeward journey.

Bill McDermid, Uplands Golf Club, shot a 73, going out in 39 and making the return trip to the clubhouse in 34, one under par. He annexed low gross honors for the first eighteen with 65, made possible with his eight handicap.

Second round will be played next Sunday at Colwood, with the city championship going to the player with the low gross score over the thirty-six-hole round. Forty-eight tied off yesterday. Draw for the second and final round will be announced later in the week.

MAINLAND ELEVEN DEFEATS VICTORIA

Ralph Coles, Travis drove the ball from almost mid-field, and Dan Kula, fumbling most of the afternoon, allowed the bouncing ball to get away from him. Coles, closing fast on the play, tapped the leather into the net, making the score 3-2.

St. Saviours came right back from the centre and, with a smart combination play, wound up with Jack Muir scoring with a beautiful low shot. Moss, who played a good game in the Victoria net, had no chance with the drive.

VICTORIA TIRES
A tiring Victoria team fought gamely to keep the visitors from adding to their total, but just could not manage to hold the St. Saviours at bay. Young Ernie Butcher bagged what proved to be the deciding goal when he took a pass from the right wing and picked the far side of the netting with a smart, well-aimed shot. There was no further scoring.

American League Attendance Mark Broken This Year

CHICAGO, Oct. 14 (AP)—The American League's season attendance record was broken this year when 5,433,791 paid spectators passed through the turnstiles, President William Harridge announced today.

This figure, Harridge said, surpassed the 1936 aggregate by 1,163,189 and was 1,078,352 better than the record set in 1924. Every club showed a gain in attendance.

Night games attracted 634,228 an average of 18,121 a contest.

Detroit alone drew more than 1,000,000, its total being 1,112,693.

REGINA UPSETS CALGARY SQUAD

Roughriders Tounce Brinks 17-0 in Western Inter-Provincial Fixture

REGINA, Oct. 14 (CP)—Regina Roughriders scored the biggest upset in the Western Inter-Provincial Football Union today by swamping Calgary Brinks, 17-0, before 3,000 fans.

The Regina victory followed a 26-19 setback the Canadian champion Winnipeg Blue Bombers handed Calgary Saturday. It clinched first place in the league for the Roughriders, a mathematical chance of dislodging Brinks for the coveted second play-off berth.

Two field goals by "Toor" Springfield, who also made a convert, and touchdowns by Don Thompson and Dan Caprani accounted for Regina's seventeen points. Next Saturday the Roughriders can draw even with Brinks when they battle Brinks at Calgary, but they would need a win the following week at Winnipeg to make certain of a play-off berth.

Roughriders started off with an eight-point scoring spree in the first quarter, boosted the count to 14-0 by half-time, and added a field goal in the last quarter to complete the rout of the tired Brinks, who turned in their dullest performance of the season.

MIDGET AUTOS FEATURED IN HOLIDAY MEET

Buddy Green Coasts to Win in "Baby Car" Classic Yesterday

Midget auto races sounded their own death-knell in Victoria yesterday at the Langford Speedway, when Buddy Green coasted around the track in his baby "32" for over nineteen of the twenty-lap classic, and then coasted in an easy winner over Jim Smith and Walt Armstrong, both of Vancouver, when his motor coaxed out on the last turn of the last lap.

Vastly disappointing to the large crowd of speed fans, the midget trials proved themselves definitely inferior to the larger cars for audience thrills. Motors proving temperamental to the extreme, only four of the "babies" were able to muster for the twenty-lap main fixture. And of these, only Buddy Green's No. 52 was able to circle the track with anything approaching the speed of the supposedly slower big cars.

Buddy waited to the lead at the start of the trial and remained there throughout, lapping Armstrong, Smith and Wright.

When, in the last hundred yards of the last lap, his motor petered out on him, he was able to coast into first money. Armstrong, of Vancouver, ran second. Time was 6:15.2.

LAUDS PLAY OF BLUE BOMBERS

Coach Les Dickinson, Vancouver, Pays Tribute to Mann Cup Winners

TORONTO, Oct. 14 (CP)—Far from the scene where they conquered Vancouver Burrard Blue Bombers to win the Mann Cup and the Canadian senior lacrosse championship, St. Catharines Athletics celebrated the return of the famed cup and title for the second time in three years tonight.

The festivities started in their dressing-room in Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens. They left quickly for St. Catharines, where a reception had been planned for them.

In a packed dressing-room, mobbed by enthusiastic supporters and photographers, Athletics received congratulations from the Bombers, who took their licking with a smile. The Bombers admitted they were beaten by a better team.

The Vancouver dressing-room was pretty noisy for a place filled with players who had just lost a Canadian championship series. Coach Les Dickinson, giving the Athletics full credit, didn't think his club had played the lacrosse of which they were capable.

"They had us licked all the way. We played the same way St. Catharines did when they lost the championship to New Westminster last year."

Jim McGonaghy, of Vancouver, president of the Canadian Lacrosse Association, echoed Dickinson's feelings that the Bombers had played the series below the form they had showed on the Coast.

"The Bombers were too light to stand the going over St. Catharines handed out," the C.L.A. president said. He thought the Athletics had enough edge in weight to wear down the Bombers and make them play to suit St. Catharines' plans.

"But they can play better than they showed here," he insisted. "If they hadn't done so all season they wouldn't have been here."

Works being carried out by a commission representing the two Governments.

Withdrawal of United States' objection to the diversion of additional water at Niagara upon Ontario diverting additional water into the Great Lakes system makes possible the development of a project the Ontario Government has favored for some time.

The Beigrade newspaper Politika reported that the British telephoned police, who were quoted as saying the shots were fired by Iron Guardists from a neighboring villa.

The villa was said to have been the property of Mme. Magda Lupescu, who left Rumania with former King Carol.

Rumors that shots had been fired at automobiles of British diplomats in Bucharest were unconfirmed.

U.S. STATEMENT
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—The United States and Canada have agreed to start immediate engineering "investigations" on a major hydro-electric project in the St. Lawrence River, in what the State Department described tonight as a plan to assure "adequate power supplies" for defense industries.

The move looks toward early conclusion of an understanding between the two countries to carry out power development phases of the long-standing proposal for a deep waterway linking the Great Lakes with the sea. Announcement of the move was made simultaneously in Washington and Ottawa.

The entire waterway-power project was embodied in a treaty defeated in the United States Senate in 1924. President Roosevelt disclosed recently new negotiations were being carried on, involving only power development as a defence measure.

Big Holderidge, heaved with the No. 8 car, and Don Vantreight, in No. 9, played tag around the course together, coming in an uninterested fourth and fifth.

HELMET DASHES
Jack Spaulding, in his No. 31, copped the three-lap helmet dash over Buddy Green, second, and Jerry Vantreight, third, in the first race following the time trials.

Green started the event with a steering wheel that was half off the post, and ended a furious drive in the last lap with his motor shooting clouds of oily smoke. Spaulding's time for the three rounds was :58.

In a mass heat race, with every able car in the five-lap contest, Joe Moore, in No. 1, beat Jack Spaulding in his No. 31, taking but 1:38.4 to make the five rounds. Jack Frumento tagged in in third spot.

Jerry Vantreight, having trouble with his No. 7 right through the race, was almost put out for the day when it was necessary to throw sand over the engine when it caught fire on the southern turn.

TIME TRIALS
Big Cars—Jack Spaulding, No. 31, :48.3; Buddy Green, No. 23, :49; Jerry Vantreight, No. 7, :49; Jack Frumento, No. 4, :50.1; Joe Moore, No. 1, :50; Sid Holderidge, No. 8, :50.2; Don Vantreight, :51.2.

Midgets—Walter Armstrong, Vancouver, No. 102, :21.1; Jim Smith, Vancouver, No. 105, :22; Johnny Wright, Victoria, No. 4, :21.4; Jack Spaulding, No. 104, :22.3; Buddy Green, Victoria, No. 52, :20.1; Jack Frumento, No. 1, :19.1.
